

Castillian Creek

Riparian revegetation and wildlife corridor enhancement plans for the County of Santa Barbara. Installation of planting and monitoring were included in the project scope. Picnic areas, a trail, and a basketball court are woven into the project to create a nature escape and recreation opportunities for employees of the adjacent Casillian Technical Center.