

Westmont College Faculty Housing Santa Barbara

An award winning landscape design of a multi-family, single residential unit development for faculty and families of a local college. Residents desired a landscape that fit into the existing, surrounding natural conditions. Low fuel plants were selected to reduce fire hazard while achieving a beautiful, scenic quality. Plant selection and design respects numerous native Oak trees as well as the rural character of the surrounding neighborhood.
