

Laguna Street Residence Santa Barbara

Landscape design of a historic structure located in Santa Barbara's prestigious upper east side, steps away from the renowned Santa Barbara Mission. Plant selection is designed to complement the Mediterranean architecture and provide low maintenance. The home was designed by late renowned local architect, Mary Osborne Craig, and the recent landscape was designed within historical context.
