

Residence Santa Barbara

Rustic and soothing, this Mediterranean and native plant-themed garden features a multi-tiered waterfall with a water garden. New boulder retaining walls create the opportunity for a pond overlook and lawn terrace, which offer the user multiple levels from which to experience the landscape. The varying levels also function as outdoor rooms, creating zones of interest throughout the garden. Tranquility and function complete this total design.
