

Architect's Office Santa Barbara

Award-winning landscape design for a renovated, mid-century office building. Simple and elegant materials complement the clean lines of the building. The chic entry area sets the tone for the highly stylistic designs the architects are known for.