

Emergency Operations Center County of Santa Barbara

Landscape and permeable hardscape plans for an important County emergency facility designed to withstand natural disasters such as fire and flooding. As part of the design team, our firm coordinated with County staff for mitigation of native oak trees and proposed landscaping to reduce fire fuel volumes and conserve water. Tough, sculptural succulents in ornamental gravel surround the building, while low-growing native shrubs provide color and slope stabilization.

